

In regards to 04. Energy Community Requirement, Question (1) timing considerations for determining whether a qualified facility is located in an energy community. Can the determination for an energy community come at 12 months prior to NTP (Notice to Proceed), as to not discourage from hiring locally for construction? Hiring plans are initiated several months prior to start of construction, so knowing the facility is qualified as an energy community at that time will incentivize local hiring.